Intervention

There is no typical suicidal person. No age group, ethnicity, or background is immune. Fortunately, many troubled individuals display behaviors deliberately or inadvertently signal their suicidal intent. Recognizing the warning signs (<http://tspn.org/warning-signs>) and learning what to do next may help save a life.

Contact

If someone exhibits behavioral patterns that may indicate possible risk for suicide, they should be watched closely. If they appear numerous or severe, seek professional help at once. The 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline provides access to trained telephone counselors, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by calling or texting 988.

If a student, faculty, or staff member encounters a suicidal student, faculty, or staff member, the following individual should be contacted immediately:

Student Services at 731-424-0691 (ext. 140 or 198 for Jackson, ext. 212 for Lexington, or ext. 303 for Whiteville/Brownsville).

Should the incident occur after hours, or the above noted individual is not available, the following should be contacted immediately:

- For a Student Issue – Amy Luckey, Director of Practical Nursing and Allied Health, 731-424-0691 (ext. 120), amy.luckey@tcatjackson.edu
- For a Faculty/Staff Issue – Jacquene Rainey, Campus President, 731-424-0691 (ext. 108), jacquene.rainey@tcatjackson.edu

If the suicidal person has plans and access to a lethal means, is planning to make an attempt very soon, or is currently in the process of making an attempt, this individual is in imminent danger and should not be left alone. Get the person help immediately. Determine who can get there quickly and keep the individual safe. Immediately call 911.

The safety and wellbeing of our students, faculty, and staff is of the utmost importance. In situations that require immediate action because of safety or other concerns, Tennessee College of Applied Technology Jackson will take any reasonable administrative action or accommodation protocols that are appropriate. Such interim actions may include, but are not limited to, adjustments to schedules, ADA accommodations, adjustments of course or exam schedules, facilitation of hold harmless voluntary withdrawals, incompletes, etc.

Postvention

Because all student/faculty/staff deaths affect our community, whether that death is accidental, due to illness, or the result of self-inflicted injury, it is important for Tennessee College of Applied Technology Jackson to respond to and recognize all deaths in a consistent manner. Campus leadership and the communications department developed a protocol that includes a campus response to a student/faculty/staff suicide to decrease the trauma experienced by the students and other campus community members left behind and to help prevent further suicides through contagion.

Contact

If a student, staff, or faculty member death occurs by suicide, the following person, or their designee, should be notified immediately:

- Jacquene Rainey, Campus President, 731-424-0691 (ext. 108), jacquene.rainey@tcatjackson.edu
