

PREVENTING FRAUD, WASTE, OR ABUSE

Management at the Tennessee College of Applied Technology Jackson is responsible for establishing and implementing systems and procedures to prevent and detect fraud, waste and abuse.

The basic elements of a proper control system include:

- Creating a culture of honesty and high ethics
- Evaluating risks and implementing processes, procedures and controls to prevent, deter and detect fraud, waste and abuse
- Developing appropriate oversight processes

Management at all levels of the College should review the information that is available from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants in the document, Management Antifraud Programs and Controls: Guidance to Help Prevent and Deter Fraud, found as an exhibit in their Professional Auditing Standard AU 316 at the AICPA's website: www.aicpa.org.

System-wide Internal Audit can provide assistance in reviewing risks, processes, procedures or controls, or in providing internal control training. Contact our office at: (615) 366-4496.

INVESTIGATIONS

Internal Audit has reporting responsibility to the Audit Committee of the Tennessee Board of Regents. This reporting relationship enables Internal Audit staff to independently and objectively review matters involving any level of administration.

When the Office of Internal Audit receives allegations of dishonesty or other irregularity by an employee, outside contractor, or vendor, Internal Audit staff are required to conduct an investigation.

Supervisors should not attempt to conduct investigations nor alert suspected employees of an impending investigation.

The objectives include verifying the facts, maintaining objectivity and confidentiality, determining responsibility for any irregularities, and recommending corrective actions to help ensure that similar actions do not occur in the future.

REPORTING FRAUD, WASTE, OR ABUSE

The TCAT Jackson is committed to the responsible stewardship of resources. State law requires all public institutions of higher education provide a means by which students, employees, or others may report suspected or known improper or dishonest acts (T.C.A. § 49-14-103(a)). Whether you are part of departmental management, a faculty or staff member, a student, or an interested citizen, we encourage you to report known or suspected fraud, waste, or abuse by employees, outside contractors, or vendors (T.C.A. § 8-50-116).

ACTIONS TO REPORT

Activities such as the following, either known or suspected, should be reported:

- Theft or misappropriation of funds, supplies, property, or other institutional resources
- Forgery or alteration of documents
- Unauthorized alteration or manipulation of computer files
- Improper and wasteful activity
- Falsification of reports to management or external agencies
- Pursuit or acceptance of a benefit or advantage in violation of the Board's conflicts of interest policy
- Authorization or receipt of compensation for hours not worked

BE REASONABLY CERTAIN!

Before making allegations of fraud, waste, or abuse, be reasonably certain of any claims. Such allegations could seriously and negatively impact the accused individual's life and adversely affect the working environment of the department.

T.C.A. § 39-16-502, False Reports, states that it is unlawful to make a false report if:

- The offense or incident reported did not occur;
- The person has no information relating to the offense or incident reported; or
- The information relating to the offense reported is false.

PROTECTION UNDER STATE LAW

State law provides protection for individuals by prohibiting discrimination or retaliation of any kind against employees who report, in good faith, allegations of fraud, waste or abuse or for cooperating with auditors conducting an investigation. Internal Audit working papers, including allegations of fraud, waste or abuse and the individual reporting information to Internal Audit are confidential under T.C.A. § 10-7-504(a)(22), unless subject to court action requiring disclosure. If there is a separate legal obligation to investigate the complaint (e.g., complaints of illegal harassment or discrimination), anonymity or complete confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. T.C.A. § 49-14-103(b) directs that a person who knowingly and willingly retaliates or takes adverse action of any kind against any person for reporting alleged wrongdoing pursuant to the provisions of this part commits a Class A misdemeanor.
